

Terms of Use

Additional Services

Via our Hostpoint Control Panel, we provide you with access to various Additional Services. By using an Additional Service, you agree to the following Terms of Use and the further terms of the respective third-party provider (for third-party services) and of Hostpoint.

The General Terms and Conditions Web hosting also apply to the use of Additional Services, unless these Terms of Use provide for a different arrangement.

1. User Obligations

You undertake to keep the Additional Services you use (both on the server and client side) technically up to date and to perform regular updates. Additional Services that you no longer require and use must be deleted from the server/client. Our instructions regarding the use, maintenance, updating, or deletion of Additional Services must be complied with. You are solely responsible for backing up your databases and data.

You may only use Additional Services and the associated files, documents, and information within the scope of the hosting services utilized by you and to the intended extent. Unless the terms of use of the third-party provider or Hostpoint explicitly permit this, you are prohibited from (i) copying, modifying, or creating derivative works from the Additional Services or their documentation, in whole or in part; (ii) making the Additional Services or their documentation available to third parties in any form; (iii) reverse engineering, decompiling, adapting, or otherwise attempting to access or gain access to any software component of the Additional Services, in whole or in part; (iv) removing any proprietary notices; or (v) using the Additional Services or their documentation in a manner or for a purpose that is not intended, infringes, misappropriates, or otherwise violates an intellectual property right or other right of any person, or breaches applicable law.

2. Scope of Services

We provide access to Additional Services on a voluntary basis, without being contractually obligated to do so. We reserve the right to remove, block, or restrict the use of Additional Services at any time and without prior notice. Support services by Hostpoint are not included in the scope of services.

With respect to third-party services, Hostpoint's service is limited to enabling you to access the respective third-party service; the provision of services is carried out solely by the third-party provider, not by Hostpoint. The use of third-party services is subject to the conditions defined by the third-party provider.

3. Usage Analysis

Hostpoint and third-party providers reserve the right to monitor the use of their Additional Services and, in particular, to conduct statistical analyses.

4. Warranty and Liability

The Additional Services are provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis, without any warranty, support, availability, or service level commitments, including no warranty of fitness for a particular purpose or non-infringement of third-party rights; the Additional Services may contain errors or generate faulty/unlawful content. The use of the Additional Services is at your own risk and peril.

Hostpoint's liability in connection with Additional Services is excluded to the extent permitted by law.

5. Amendment of the Terms of Use

Hostpoint reserves the right to amend these Terms of Use at any time and without prior notice. By continuing to use an Additional Service chosen by you, you agree to the amended Terms of Use for all Additional Services used by you.
